No. 17 L 62046

MOTION TO QUASH PURPORTED SERVICE AND
VACATE ORDER OF DEFAULT

NOW COME Defendants, PQPR Holdings Limited, LLC (PQPR Holdings)(incorrectly named and sued as INFOWARSSTORE.COM) and ALEX JONES, by and through their attorneys, CASSIDAY SCHADE LLP, and moves this Court for an Order Quashing Service of Summons on it. In support thereof, PQPR Holdings and Alex Jones, state as follows:

1. On August 15, 2017, Plaintiff, MICHAEL HOGG, pro se, filed the instant litigation in the Circuit Court of Cook County. See Complaint at Law, attached as Exhibit A.
2. On November 29, 2017, this Court granted Plaintiff leave to issue an alias summons on all defendants. See Order of November 29, 2017, attached as Exhibit B.
3. On March 8, 2016, Plaintiff attempted to serve the Summons and Complaint to Defendants, Alex Jones and Infowarsstore.com at 3001 S. Lamar Blvd., Austin, TX 78704 through the following method of service: delivery of the Summons and Complaint through the United States Postal Service.

4. 3001 S. Lamar Blvd., Austin, Texas is a nonexistent address. Therefore, the United States Post Office delivered the Summons to the closest valid address in the area: 3005 S. Lamar Blvd., Austin, Texas.

5. Attached and in support of this Motion is the affidavit of David Jones, the Managing Member of JLJR Holdings, LLC, which certifies and attests that PQPR Holdings and Alex Jones were never personally served with process. See Affidavit, attached as Exhibit C.

6. Prior to the filing of any other pleading or motion other than a motion for an extension of time to answer or otherwise appear, a party may object to the court's jurisdiction over the party's person, either on the ground that the party is not amenable to process of a court of this State or on the ground of insufficiency of process or insufficiency of service of process, by filing a motion to dismiss the entire proceeding or any cause of action involved in the proceeding or by filing a motion to quash service of process. 735 ILCS 5/2-301(a).

7. 735 ILCS 5/2-204 provides as follows with respect to service on private corporations:

"A private corporation may be served (1) by leaving a copy of the process with its registered agent or any officer or agent of the corporation found anywhere in the State; or (2) in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. A private corporation may also be notified by publication and mail in like manner and with like effect as individuals." 735 ILCS 5/2-204.

8. Plaintiff did not personally serve Infowarslife's registered agent, nor did Plaintiff personally serve any officer or agent of Infowarslife or PQPR Holdings. Rather, the Summons and Complaint was mailed to Alex Jones through the United States Postal Service to an incorrect address.

9. 735 ILCS 5/2-203 provides as follows with respect to service on individuals:

"Service on individuals (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided, service of summons upon an individual defendant shall be made (1) by leaving a copy of the summons with the defendant personally, (2) by leaving a copy at the defendant's usual place of abode, with some person of the family or a person residing there, of the age of 13 years or upwards, and informing that person of the contents of the summons, provided the officer or other person making service shall also send a copy of the summons in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid, addressed to the defendant at his or her usual place of abode, or (3) as provided in Section 1-2-9.2 of the Illinois Municipal Code with respect to violation of an ordinance governing parking or standing of vehicles in cities with a population over 500,000....." 735 ILCS 5/2-203.

10. Plaintiff did not leave a copy of the Summons and Complaint with Alex Jones personally, nor did he leave a copy at Alex Jones' usual place of abode.

11. Since Plaintiff failed to achieve proper service upon Defendants PQPR Holdings and Alex Jones, this Court lacks jurisdiction over such Defendants and service of summons mailed to 3001 Lamar Blvd., Austin, TX should be quashed pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-301.

12. On April 25, 2018, this Court accepted the purported service on Defendants, entered a default judgment against Defendants INFOWARSSTORE.COM and ALEX JONES, and set a prove up of damages for June 6, 2018. See purported service on Infowarsstore.com, attached as Exhibit D; purported service on Alex Jonas, attached as Exhibit E; and April 25, 2018 Order, attached as Exhibit F.

13. Pursuant to Section 2-1301(e), "The court may in its discretion, before final order or judgment, set aside any default, and may on motion filed within 30 days after entry thereof set aside any final order or judgment upon any terms and conditions that shall be reasonable." The Illinois Supreme Court has held, "Where a litigant seeks to set aside a default under section 2-1301(e),... the litigant need not necessarily show the existence of a meritorious defense and a reasonable excuse for not having timely asserted such defense. Rather, the overriding consideration is simply whether or not substantial justice is being done between the litigants..." People V. Ralph L. (In re Haley D.), 2011 L 110886, ¶ 57.

14. This motion is filed within thirty days of entry of the April 25, 2018 judgment. Defendants therefore seek that the default judgment entered on April 25, 2018 be vacated.

15. The filing of this motion shall not be used as any waiver of objection to jurisdiction on behalf of Defendants PQPR Holdings and Alex Jones.

WHEREFORE, Defendants, PQPR HOLDINGS LIMITED, LLC (incorrectly named and sued as INFOWARSSTORE.COM) and ALEX JONES, respectfully request this Court enter an Order quashing service of process, vacating the order of default, and dismissing this case, with prejudice, against it for lack of personal jurisdiction pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-301.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION TO QUASH DEFECTIVE SERVICE OF SUMMONS
AND TO VACATE ORDER OF DEFAULT DEFENDANTS OF GLOBAL HEALING
CENTER AND DR. EDWARD GROUP

Defendants, Global Healing Center (“Global Healing”) and Dr. Edward Group (“Dr. Group”), by their attorneys, Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP, for their Motion to Quash Defective Service of Summons and to Vacate Order of Default, state as follows:

1. Plaintiff Michael E. Hogg (“Plaintiff”) filed his Complaint for Fraud, Conspiracy to Commit Fraud and Strict Product Liability (“Complaint”) on August 15, 2017. See Exhibit 1, Complaint.
2. On November 29, 2017, this Court granted Plaintiff leave to issue alias summons upon all defendants. See Exhibit 2, November 29, 2017 Order.
3. On January 26, 2018, Plaintiff caused to have Alias Summons issued to Global Healing and “Group Edward” by the Clerk of Court. See Group Exhibit 3, Alias Summonses.
4. According to Plaintiff’s process server, he delivered copies of the summons and Complaint “to RECEPTIONIST, REFUSED TO GIVE HER NAME” at Global Healing Center, 2040 North Loop West #234, Houston, TX 77018 on February 6, 2018. See Exhibit 4, Affidavit of Process Server dated February 12, 2018.

5. According to Plaintiff's process server, he delivered copies of the summons and Complaint to "GROUP EDWARD as MANAGER of the within named corporation" at Group Edward, 2040 North Loop West, Houston, TX77018 on March 8, 2018. See Exhibit 5, Affidavit of Process Server dated March 9, 2018.

6. On April 25, 2018, this Court entered an order finding all defendants in technical default, and set this matter over to June 6, 2018 for prove-up. See Exhibit 6, April 25, 2018 Order.

7. As the Alias Summonses procured by Plaintiff are fatally defective and/or have not been properly served, they should be quashed and the order finding these defendants in technical default should be vacated.

8. Global Healing is a Texas limited partnership. See Exhibit 7, Affidavit of Molly Latham at ¶ 3. Illinois law provides that "[a] partnership sued in its firm name may be served by leaving a copy of the process with any partner personally or with any agent of the partnership found anywhere in the State." 735 ILCS 5/2-205(a). Unfortunately for Plaintiff, service was allegedly effected upon a "receptionist" who "refused to give her name." See Exhibit 4.

9. Not only does Global Healing not have a working receptionist at its principal office location in Texas (see Exhibit 7 at ¶ 4), such a receptionist could not at all be considered a partner or agent of the partnership. See e.g., Dei v. Tumara Food Mart, Inc., 406 Ill. App. 3d 856 (1st Dist. 2010). Moreover, and in any event, none of Global Healing's employees or officers received copies of the Alias Summons or Complaint on February 6, 2018. Id. at ¶¶ 5-6. Thus, service on Global Healing was clearly improper under Illinois law.

10. Plaintiff's purported service on Dr. Group is equally defective. As an initial matter, Plaintiff attempted to serve a "corporation" identified in Plaintiff's Alias Summons as "Group Edward." See Group Exhibit 3 and Exhibit 5. "Group Edward" is not corporation known to these defendants, nor is "Group Edward" a named party to this lawsuit. Plaintiff's Alias Summons is therefore rendered defective as it is not directed to the proper party. A summons served upon a non-existent party does not give the court jurisdiction. Theodorakis v. Kogut, 194 Ill. App. 3d 586, 589 (1990). Because Plaintiff's Alias Summons fails to name Dr. Group, an individual, on its face, then under Illinois law it "is no summons at all." Id. at 588 (stating that a summons which does not name a person on its face and notify him to appear, is no summons at all, so far as the unnamed person is concerned).

11. Even assuming, arguendo, that the Alias Summons were properly directed to Dr. Group, it was not properly served. Dr. Group is an individual residing in Texas. Illinois law requires that an individual be served "(1) by leaving a copy of the summons with the defendant personally, [or] (2) by leaving a copy at the defendant's usual place of abode, with some person of the family or a person residing there, of the age of 13 years or upwards, and informing that person of the contents of the summons, provided the officer or other person making service shall also send a copy of the summons in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid, addressed to the defendant at his or her usual place of abode." See 735 ILCS 5/2-203(a). Unfortunately for Plaintiff, service was allegedly effected upon "Group Edward as Manager of the within named corporation." See Exhibit 5. Plaintiff's process server did not leave a copy of the Alias Summons and Complaint with Dr. Group personally, nor did he leave a copy at Dr. Group's usual place of abode. See Exhibit 8, Affidavit of Dr. Edward F. Group III at ¶ 3. Thus, service was not proper under Section 2-203(a) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure.

12. Moreover, Plaintiff's defective Alias Summon to Group Edward, dated January 28, 2018, was expired at the time it was purportedly served. See Group Exhibit 3. The Alias Summons clearly states to any officer serving said summons that:

This Summons must be returned by the officer or other person to whom it was given for service, with endorsement of service and fees, if any, immediately after service. If service cannot be made, this Summons shall be returned so endorsed. This Summons may not be served later than thirty (30) days after its date.

Id. (emphasis added). Illinois Supreme Court Rule 102(b) further provides that “[n]o summons . . . may be served later than 30 days after its date.”

13. According to Plaintiff's process server, service on “Group Edward” was achieved on March 8, 2018. See Group Exhibit 3. Taking this as true, it means that Plaintiff's Alias Summons was expired at the time of service and, therefore, could not actually constitute effective service upon Dr. Group. See Hardy v. Bankers Life & Cas. Co., 19 Ill. App. 2d 75, 80 (1st Dist. 1958) (finding that summons was properly quashed under Rule 3, the predecessor to 102(b), where it was served on a defendant after the 30-day life of the summons had expired).

14. Since Plaintiff failed to achieve proper service on Global Healing and Dr. Group, this Court lacks jurisdiction over these defendants and service of the Alias Summonses should be quashed. 735 ILCS 5/2-301.

15. On April 25, 2018, this Court accepted the purported service on Global Healing and Dr. Group and entered a finding of technical default. See Exhibit 6.

16. Pursuant to section 2-1301(e) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure:

“The court may in its discretion, before final order or judgment, set aside any default, and may on motion filed within 30 days after entry thereof set aside any final order of judgment upon any terms and conditions that shall be reasonable.”

735 ILCS 5/2-1301. The Illinois Supreme Court has held, “[w]here a litigant seeks to set aside a default under Section 2-1301(e), . . . the litigant need not necessarily show the existence of a meritorious defense and a reasonable excuse for not having timely asserted such defense. Rather, the overriding consideration is simply whether or not substantial justice is being done between the litigants . . .” People v. Ralph L. (In re Haley D.), 2011 L 110886, ¶ 57.

17. This motion is filed within thirty days of entry of the April 25, 2018 order. Global Healing and Dr. Group therefore seek that the finding of technical default entered on April 25, 2018 be vacated.

18. This finding of default does not serve substantial justice as it is based upon improper and invalid service of process. Global Healing and Dr. Group are being denied the opportunity to defend against Plaintiff’s allegations.

19. The filing of this motion shall not be used as any waiver of objection to jurisdiction on behalf of Global Healing and Dr. Group.

WHEREFORE, defendants, Global Healing Center and Dr. Edward Group, respectfully request this Court enter an order which quashing service of process, vacating the finding of technical default, and dismissing this case, with prejudice, against them for lack of personal jurisdiction pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-301.
